

APPROVED

Celebrations committee meeting called to order at 6:30 pm Members present: Mike Mulryan, Bryan Levangie, Pat Crowley, Elisha Lynch, Betty-Jean Lane

Absent: Nate Orciani

Guests: Jennifer Warrant-Dyment, Town Administrator and Nicki Farraj

Correspondence: None

Old Business:

Fall Festival date October 21, 2023, 11:00-5:00 pm

Fall Festival charge for all vendors including food trucks is $40.00

P Crowley, craft beer vendors are busy and unable to do fall festival. Jen will try another vendor. Vendor must staff booth. Unless a vendor is located, no beer garden this year.

Dunk tank is still on the High School Teachers volunteering for a dunk.

Pie eating contest is on. Motion P. Crowley 2nd Betty-Jean Lane. Authorize Walmart gift cards for winners.

Fall Festival Co-Chair Report: B. Levangie, Tables and chairs for food truck area maybe provided by local churches. The School Yagd is on board to provide games for children.

N. Farraj will help with the scarecrows, E Lynch registration applications, fee charged and winner awarded a prize.

Betty-Jean advertising and placement of Fall festival sign boards. Also, date changes.

Motion: P. Crowley 2nd E. Lynch Authorize 200.00 for fall festival signage, if necessary, No parking etc....

Motion: Betty—Jean 2nd P. Crowley Authorize 100.00 for shuttle bus driver during fall festival.

This year the food vending area will be on the middle common. The food trucks will be on the Central St. side if the center common facing east. The lawn area will be available for tables etc.

M. Mulryan will check with WBDPW regards to dig safe needs.

All vendors, except food vendors, will be on the East Common.

Fall Festival Volunteers will be invited to the next Celebrations committee meeting.

New Business:

An introduction Coffee of town officials, civic organizations and religious organizations in West Boylston was discussed. The purpose of the informal gathering is to meet others who serve the residents of West Boylston in various ways. Date: October 19, 2023 at 10:15 am Holiday Tree Decorations. Town Administrator looking into various options.

Next Meeting, September 18, 2023

Respectfully, M. Mulryan, Chair